

At The Hop

Dance to the tunes of yesteryear
When ducktails, ponytails and poodle skirts were dear
And hot rods, hoola hoops and Elvis was King
And everyone joined the Mousekateers to sing.

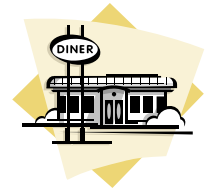

Drive-in movies with popcorn, peanuts & popsicles too
When Clark Gable, Kirk Douglas & the Hepburns were new
And jukeboxes blared our favorite tunes
And Sunday mornings were filled with church & cartoons.

So put on your t-straps and saddle shoes too
Roll up the cuffs on your jeans that were blue
You've got yourself ready from bottom to top
Now get ready, get set & go to the Hop.
